

Alice

“Alice”, that’s what her friend calls her. Alisia Maulidya or Alice is a cold-girl and everyone refers her as Ice Queen, as if her long and sharp eyelashes present to threaten whoever is in her way and a Long-Straight-Black-Hair emphasize the mystery lies in her.

Despite her coldness and maturity, Alice was actually a clumsy girl, she always get into an awkward situation and can’t deal with it. She always rely on me when her clumsiness appear.

Alice was a childhood friend of mine, our first encounter was back when we’re kindergarten. Since our parents live nearby, we often hang out together and enjoy ourselves. When we enter elementary schools, unfortunately Alice’s parent have to move abroad for business reason and they take Alice with her. She was a cheerful and bright girl back then, but our reunion made that image shutter into pieces.

“I didn’t know she attend this university”

That was my first thought when I saw her across the corridor. I tried to greet her for our reunion, but she just ignore me and walk pass by.

“Did I make any mistakes?”

“Is she angry?”
